

Year C, Sunday between 31 July and 6 August

Proper 13, OT-18s - Psalm 107:1-9, 43

A - wak - en our hearts that we might do your Work.

We give thanks to You, who are the Source of Love;
whose Light shines forth throughout the universe!
Come, awaken our hearts that we might do your Work;
For, without You, we can do nothing;
'tis your Love that loves through us.

Gather us in from all the lands, from the east and the west, from the south and the north.
Let all who are hungry and thirsty,
whose souls are faint with-in them,
Cry out to the Most Merciful to give them succour, to nourish them with healing love;
For fear cannot live where love, grace, and gentleness a-bide.

Enter into the Great Silence,
where you may hear the voice of the Be-loved,
Who satisfies the hungry soul, and quenches the thirsty with streams of Living Water.
Whoever is wise, let them ponder these things, let all people reflect on the gifts of the Be-loved.
